In order to further increase accessibility and priority for pedestrians and cyclists, it is proposed to construct two Parallel Zebra crossings in Stafferton Way, Maidenhead. The provision of the two Parallel Zebra crossings is intended to encourage walking and cycling to and from Maidenhead and also for other local journeys. Improvements in safety will also be made by replacing the existing uncontrolled crossing point at the western end of Stafferton Way with a controlled crossing point that is also accessible to cyclists.